How We Store and Share Your Personal Information

Our corporate group operates around the world and your personal information will be processed on servers located in Poland. In addition, your information can be accessed from outside of where you live by our support, engineering and other teams around the world.

We take appropriate measures to safeguard your rights in accordance with this Privacy Policy, regardless of where our servers are located.

We share your personal information with third parties in certain situations, including:

- Third parties that provide services in support of the Website, including providers of cloud services that process information identified in this Policy on their servers for the purpose of supporting communication in relation to your enquiries. All companies providing services for us are prohibited from retaining, using, or disclosing your personal information for any purpose other than providing us with their services. This includes our cloud providers and data services providers who are responsible for providing IT support.
- Companies within our corporate group who process your personal information in order to respond to your enquiries. All related group companies may only use your personal information in accordance with this Privacy Policy. This includes our parent company Giorgi Global Holdings, Inc. in the USA.
- Regulators, judicial authorities and law enforcement agencies, and other third parties for safety, security, or compliance with the law. There are circumstances in which we are legally required to disclose information about you to authorities, such as to comply with a legal obligation or processes, enforce our terms, address issues relating to security or fraud, or protect our users. These disclosures may be made with or without your consent, and with or without notice, in compliance with the terms of valid legal process such as a subpoena, court order, or search warrant. We are usually prohibited from notifying you of any such disclosures by the terms of the legal process. We may seek your consent to disclose information in response to a governmental entity's request when that governmental entity has not provided the required subpoena, court order, or search warrant. We may also disclose your information to:

- enforce our terms and conditions and other agreements, including investigation of any potential violation thereof;
 - detect, prevent or otherwise address security, fraud or technical issues; or
 - protect the rights, property or safety of us, our users, a third party or the public as required or permitted by law (exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction).
- A third party that acquires all or substantially all of us or our business. We may also disclose your information to third parties if we either: (a) sell, transfer, merge, consolidate or re-organise any part(s) of our business, or merge with, acquire or form a joint venture with, any other business, in which case we may disclose your personal information to any prospective buyer, new owner, or other third party involved in such change to our business; or (b) sell or transfer any of our assets, in which case the information we hold about you may be sold as part of those assets and may be transferred to any prospective buyer, new owner, or other third party involved in such sale or transfer.

Cookies

We use Cookies (“Cookies”) to enhance your experience using the Website. Cookies are small files which, when placed on your device, enable us to provide certain features and functionality. For more information about our Cookies policy, click here.

Children

We do not knowingly collect personal information from children for any purpose. If you believe that we have personal information of a child without parental/guardian consent, or if you are the parent or guardian of the user and wish to withdraw consent, please contact us and we will delete such information.

Security of Your Personal Information

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will implement and maintain reasonable measures to protect your personal information, as required by applicable law, we cannot guarantee the security of the information transmitted through the Website or otherwise via the Internet.

Transfers of the personal information to third countries

Your personal information may be processed outside the European Economic Area (EEA), in particular in the United States of America where our parent company Giorgi Global Holdings, Inc. is seated. When processed outside the EEA, CANPACK will make sure that this cross-border data processing is protected by adequate safeguards, including the standard contractual clauses for protection of personal information approved by the European Commission, providing appropriate and suitable safeguards for the transfer. These standard contractual clauses provide sufficient safeguards to meet the adequacy and security requirements of the European General Data Protection Regulation.

You may request a copy of such clauses by contacting data.protection@canpack.com.

The period for which the personal information will be stored

As a rule, the personal information will be stored as long as you keep your account on the Website or longer if necessary to safeguard evidence in case of claims, protect our rights at law and/or to comply with any judicial proceeding, court order, or as required by law.

Your rights

You have rights over your personal information. Please contact CANPACK if you want to exercise your right of access to your personal information, right of rectification of personal information, right to erasure of personal information, right to restriction of processing, right to data portability or right to object to processing. You also have a right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time, without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal. Please note some of these rights are subject to certain limitations under applicable law.

To exercise any of your rights over your personal information, please contact us at data.protection@canpack.com.

Contact & Complaints

Questions, comments and requests regarding this Privacy Policy are welcomed and should be addressed to our designated data protection officer for purposes of applicable privacy law, located at our offices, who can be contacted at data.protection@canpack.com.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority in your country. In the event that you wish to make a complaint about how we process your personal information, please contact us in the first instance at data.protection@canpack.com and we will endeavour to deal with your request as soon as possible.

Changes

If we make any changes to this Privacy Policy we will post the updated Privacy Policy here. Please check this page frequently to see if there are any updates or changes to this Privacy Policy.
